

The Importance of Believer's Baptism

A background image of a forest path with sunlight filtering through the trees. The path is a mix of brown and reddish tones, leading into a lush green forest. Sunlight creates bright, hazy patches in the upper half of the image, while the lower half is darker and more shadowed.

"Therefore go and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, and teaching them to obey everything I have commanded you."
Matthew 28:19-20

A painting of a path leading through a forest towards a bright light. The path is dark and textured, leading from the bottom center towards a bright, glowing light source in the upper center. The surrounding forest is rendered in various shades of green and blue, with a soft, ethereal atmosphere. The overall composition suggests a journey or a path of discovery.

At LAC we encourage all followers of Jesus who have repented of sin and placed their faith in Jesus to be baptized. This is what we mean by believers baptism.

A painting of a landscape. In the foreground, a path of reddish-brown earth leads towards a body of water. The water is dark and reflects the sky. The sky is a mix of light green and yellow, suggesting a bright, sunny day. The overall style is impressionistic, with visible brushstrokes and a soft, hazy atmosphere.

Baptism is an outward sign of an inward work.

A painting of a path leading through a misty, green landscape. The path is dark and appears to be made of stone or dirt, winding through a lush, green environment. The background is a soft, hazy green, suggesting a misty or overcast day. The overall mood is serene and contemplative.

We were therefore buried with him through baptism into death in order that, just as Christ was raised from the dead through the glory of the Father, we too may live a new life.

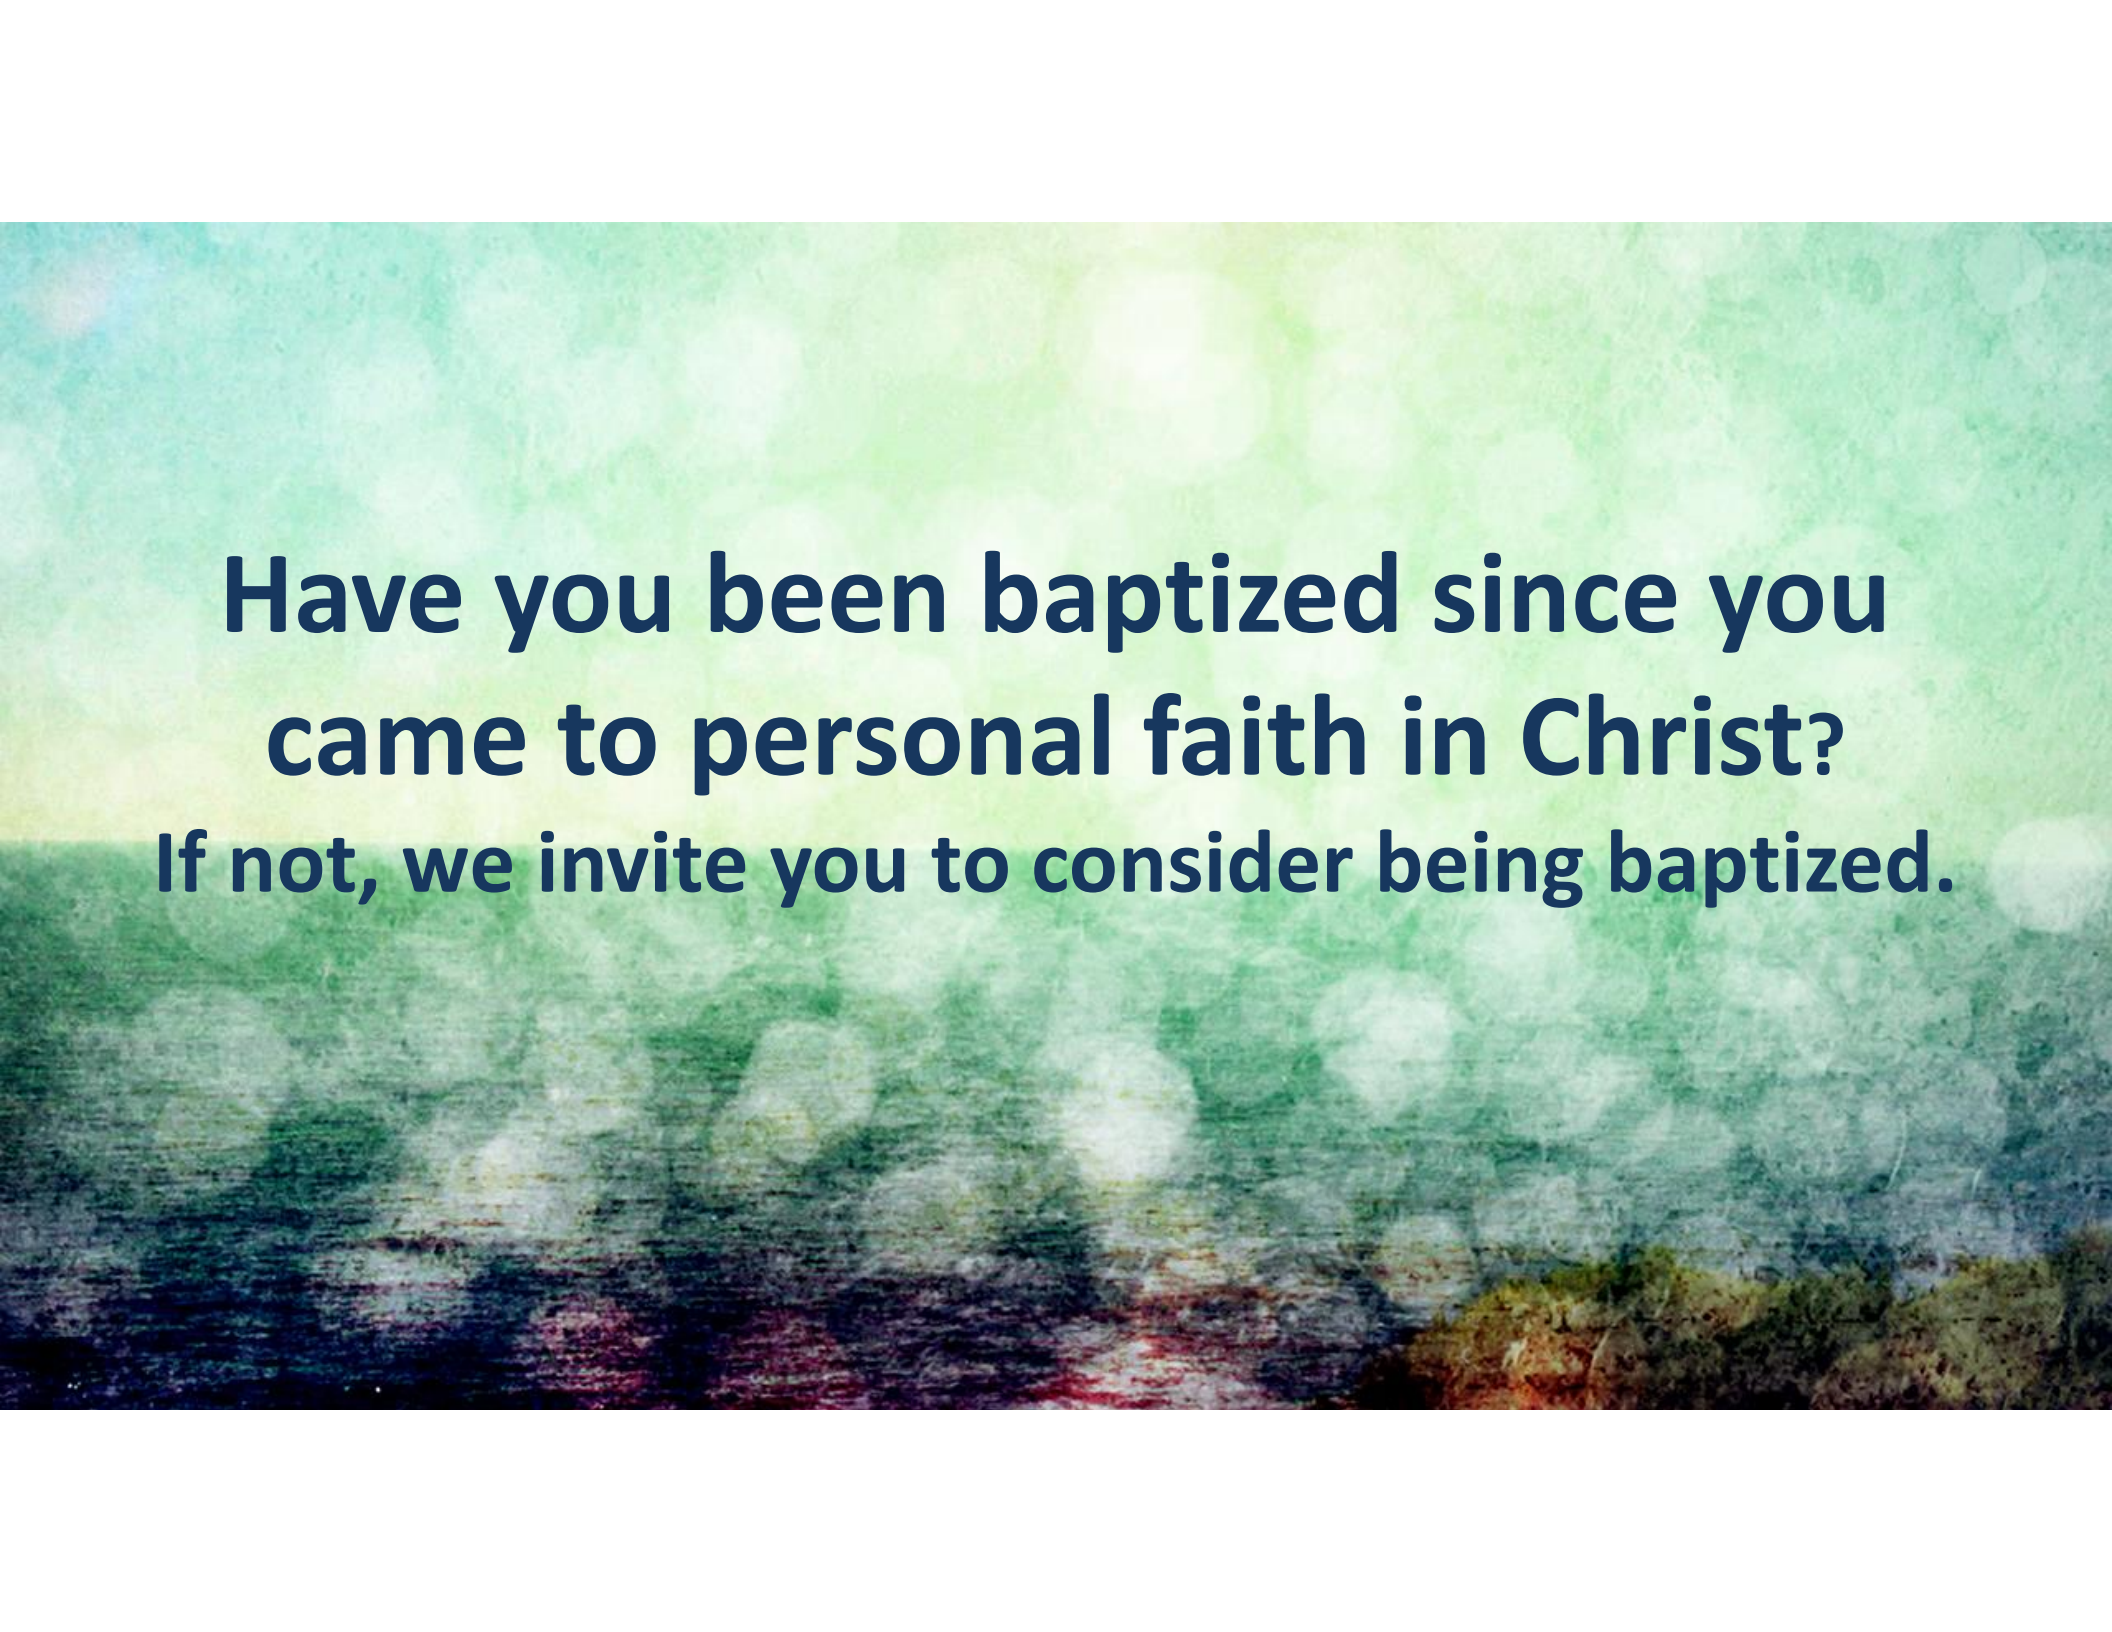

Romans 6:4

We practice believers baptism by immersion.

If a person has come to genuine faith in Christ, they are invited to be baptized.

Age is not a condition.

A painting of a path leading through a misty, green landscape. The path is dark and winding, leading from the bottom center towards the middle ground. The surrounding area is filled with various shades of green, from light and airy to dark and dense, suggesting a forest or a misty valley. The overall mood is serene and contemplative.

Have you been baptized since you came to personal faith in Christ?
If not, we invite you to consider being baptized.

- 1. Baptism is not required to receive God's salvation. This is a matter of obedience.
 - 2. People who were baptized before affiliating with this church need not be baptized again.
 - 3. If there are physical limitations, an alternative mode is acceptable.
